

A payday-loan store near Tacoma, Washington was robbed on April 12, 2004. James S. Anderson lived in Los Angeles, but he had spent time in the Pierce County Jail in Tacoma, so his mugshot was in the local police files. An eyewitness selected the 26-year-old Anderson as one of the robbers from a photo montage. Based on that identification he was charged with the robbery and arrested in Los Angeles.

While awaiting extradition to Washington, Anderson insisted he couldn't have committed the robbery because on April 12 he was more than 1,100 miles from Tacoma meeting with his probation officer in Los Angeles. Records from the LA County Probation Office confirmed Anderson's claim. The robbery charge was dropped and he was released.

Days later Anderson was re-arrested. Two suspects in the robbery of a Safeway store in Tacoma identified Anderson as one of the robbers photographed by a store surveillance camera. Anderson was charged in the robbery, which occurred at 4:20 a.m. on April 8,

After the furor of negative attention focused on the DOC's for its force feeding of Coleman, they went back to administering a drip saline solution. A hearing began on January 29, 2009 to determine if the January 2008 feeding injunction will be made permanent. Coleman was represented by the ACLU of Connecticut. Coleman testified during the two-week hearing, proclaiming: "I don't belong in prison. I'm innocent." He also read a Statement of Protest. (See accompanying box with excerpts from Coleman's statement.)

In 2005 Coleman filed a still pending state habeas corpus petition based on ineffective assistance by his trial lawyer. Coleman's trial attorney didn't file any pre-trial motions, submit a witness list, or conduct any investigation of the rape allegation. Coleman's trial attorney was suspended from practicing law in June 2007 for failing to observe ethics rules in more than ten cases.

If Coleman's challenge to his conviction is unsuccessful and he survives not eating, he is scheduled for release no later than December 2012. He will then be taken into custody by the federal government for deportation to England.

James S. Anderson Cleared Of Washington Robbery Committed When He Was 1,100 Miles Away In LA

2004. Anderson again claimed that he couldn't have committed the crime because less than 12 hours earlier he had been at the probation office in Los Angeles. Unlike the previous robbery charge, no records were forthcoming from the probation office to clear him. Anderson was extradited to Washington to stand trial for the robbery.

Somewhat unusually, Anderson insisted on representing himself, but the judge appointed a stand-by lawyer to assist him. To obtain evidence proving his claim that he had been in Los Angeles at the time of the burglary, Anderson filed a subpoena addressed to the judge and the prosecutor: "Need all check in logs from 4-7-2004 to 4-8-2004 from Probation Department Firestone Area Office; Los Angeles, Calif." He also contacted the prosecutor numerous times requesting that he obtain the probation office's records to confirm he was there only hours before the robbery. In addition, Anderson's stand-by counsel was ordered by the judge to obtain the probation records. Anderson even wrote the judge a letter asking that he intervene in discovering the records that would prove his alibi of being present in the probation office on April 7.

At the time of Anderson's trial in late 2005 the prosecution had not produced the probation office records for April 7 and 8, 2004, his stand-by attorney had not obtained them, and the LA probation office refused to turn any records over to him directly.

Before the start of his trial Anderson again raised the issue with the judge that the probation office records had not been provided to him. The prosecutor told the judge that he had personally contacted the Los Angeles Probation Office, and "there are no records of any contacts [with the probation office] whatsoever between April 6th when he was released from jail and April 12th." To cover their bases the prosecution checked with the airlines to see if Anderson had flown from LA to the Seattle/Tacoma airport on April 7. He had not done so. It takes about 18 hours to drive from LA to Tacoma, so Anderson could not have

William "Bill" Coleman's "Statement of Protest"

(Read during his testimony on February 10, 2009)

I, Bill Coleman, in September 2007, stopped eating solid food as a form of protest. I am protesting a broken judicial system that is incapable of providing justice as well as protesting the State of Connecticut assisting in the abuse of my children. The system has failed my children and me and I have communicated this in several forums, including in court. My case is not an isolated incident; countless others have been subjected to the injustice of the judicial system. Innocent people do not belong in prison and I now just want to be left alone to protest. Force-feeding me by inserting a tube through my nose into my stomach against my will violates all medical and international law. ...

I also want to make sure it is clear that my protest is not a reflection of the Connecticut Habeas Unit. They are good people doing a good job by fighting against an increasing amount of injustice in the system. The system is broken and corrupt and is also void of any moral or ethical values for the truth. This is further exacerbated because those incarcerated are not offered rehabilitation, which is no more than a token gesture, thus making society a more dangerous place on a daily basis. This is compounded by politicians and legislators putting blame on everyone and everything other than themselves, where it belongs. More laws and longer sentences are not the answer. What Connecticut citizens should know, even if they don't care about my children and me, is that they are one 'falsely accused' arrest themselves away from my nightmare. Make no mistake, your arrest is your conviction in the State of Connecticut.

What surrounds my conviction is filled with suspicious wrongdoing of many types. Having explored every avenue, to save my children and prove my innocence, I now believe the system is not an option for the truth to come out and I choose to fight to the maximum with my life. I do not want to die, but I am willing to die. Force feeding only prolongs death as my organs, after a period of time, will eventually give out. This means the DOC will have to force feed me until my death. Instead of letting me continue my protest the State is wasting valuable resources to temporarily prolong my life for only an undetermined short period of time. These resources should be spent on a better cause such as an investigation of the corrupt judicial system which would help not only me, but also others who have been wronged. ...
